UNITED FLIGHT 93

BOEING 757

8:42 DEPARTED NEWARK FOR SAN FRANCISCO

CRASHED IN STONY CREEK TWP (SOMERSET COUNTY), PA AT 10:02 AM

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

United Airlines Flight 93 departed the gate on time at 8:01 am and after taxiing into position, departed from Newark at 8:42 am, with thirty seven passengers, two pilots, and five flight attendants. Reports from family members and friends who talked to passengers (using GTE Airphones and cell phones) on the flight indicate the passengers knew their plane was going to be used in a terrorist attack, and attempted to overcome the hijackers and thwart the planned attack. UA Flight 93 crashed in Somerset county, PA, with no survivors, at 10:02 am, Tuesday, September 11, 2001.

UA Flight 93 was hijacked by four individuals identified as [ Ziad Samir Jarrah (Seat 1B), Saeed Alghamdi (Seat 3B), Ahmed Ibrahim A. Al-Haznawi (Seat 6B) and Ahmed Abdullah Alnami (Seat 3C)], armed with cutting instruments and stating that they had a box containing a bomb. Based on the cockpit voice recorder and the flight data recorder the hijacking of UA Flight # 93 was initiated at 9:28 am and terminated at 10:02 am upon crashing into the ground at over 500 miles per hour.

The hijackers of UA Flight 93 were led by Jarrah, who is believed to be an original member of the German cell.

No verified information is available concerning training for the hijackers of UA Flight # 93 in any of the known terrorist training camps.

The cell for UA Flight 93 was financially independent entering the United States, opening bank accounts utilizing bank debit cards for ATM transactions.

The information concerning the hijackers is as follows:

ZIAD SAMIR JARRAH

Jarrah is a Lebanese national who was born in Al-Marej, Lebanon on May 11, 1975. Jarrah is believed to be the cell leader (based on age, education and international travel) of the hijackers of UA Flight 93 and was the only hijacker trained as a pilot.

Jarrah received a degree in Aviation Mechanics, from University of Applied Sciences, Hamburg, Germany, between 1996 and 1999.

Jarrah first known entry into the United States is June 27, 2000, upon receiving a visa from the U.S. Consulate in Berlin, Germany. Jarrah entered the U.S. to pursue flight training in Florida.

Jarrah's, flight training enabled him to obtain a FAA Private Pilot License # 2633773, which led to obtaining additional training for multi-engine aircraft and the use of simulators for multi-engine aircraft.

Jarrah, while in the U.S. for flight training, left the country several times on international flights. A majority of the flights were to Germany, which may have been a central location for the cell's operation.

Jarrah flew numerous times within the U.S. and it is believed that these flights were surveillance operations on how airlines, airports and airport security operate.

Jarrah also utilized rental vehicles (Maryland, Florida and New Jersey) to conduct meeting and financial transactions with the hijackers from other hijacked flights.

Jarrah, while in Miami, attempts to purchase four Garmin Global Positioning System units, but is only able to obtain one unit.

Jarrah is in the United States one year prior to the other members of the cell that will
